Conclusion

Toh yeh raha in dono funds ka comparison. Dono hi funds ka investment approach kaafi alag hai. Ek taraf portfolio construction, sector positioning aur portfolio turnover mein difference dekhne ko milta hai, toh doosri taraf volatility, drawdown aur risk-adjusted return metrics mein bhi dono ki apni alag characteristics hain.

Performance ke perspective se dekhein, toh dono funds ne alag-alag time periods mein benchmark aur category average se behtar returns deliver kiye hain. Saath hi, risk metrics bhi yeh dikhate hain ki higher return ke saath risk profile ko bhi samajhna utna hi zaroori hai. Isliye kisi bhi equity fund ko evaluate karte waqt sirf past returns ya category ranking par focus karne ke bajay, uski investment philosophy, portfolio strategy, risk characteristics aur yeh sab aapki apni risk appetite aur financial goals se kitna match karte hain, is par bhi dhyan dena chahiye.
